The Sovereign

The world's most famous Flower Show is an annual celebration of man's relationship with plants, where all aspects of horticulture is lauded, feeding the imagination, and filling the mind and heart with plans for one's own small estate.

One of the highlights of the final day is the 4pm sell off, when the public can – for the first time in the Show – purchase the plants from the featured gardens and displays as each careful construction is dismantled.

Private pavilions may be reserved for 30 to 40 or 60 to 80 guests, with smaller numbers accommodated within the shared Chelsea Club facility
